FINA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Well the preliminary rounds are over and Australia finish 2nd in their pool to advance to a quarter-final showdown with Kazakhstan on Saturday. A heart stopping one goal defeat to Italy in their opening game, then a fast paced win against China, saw us just get over the ever improving Japan. Its a strange place Sth Korea, with very little english spoken or used, has led to many games of charades to buys anything. Luckily one thing the world over is easy to buy.....beer. The highlight of the trip so far, apart from watching my daughter line up to represent our country at a World Championship, was the bullet train. At 300km/hr and its so smooth, you feel like your doing 100km/hr. I try and get another wrap in soon, GO STINGERS.
